SENATE RESOLUTION 255

Senator Washington offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to acknowledge the annual "St. Dismas Day" in Texas and to welcome all those who are here with the Citizens United for Rehabilitation of Errants (CURE); and

WHEREAS, St. Dismas is best known in history as "the Good Thief," and in the Scriptures he is recognized as one of the two criminals crucified with Jesus; and

WHEREAS, On the cross, Jesus turned to Dismas and said, "This day you will be with me in paradise"; and

WHEREAS, St. Dismas is the patron saint of prisoners, and some halfway houses are called "Dismas House"; and

WHEREAS, Expected to draw CURE members and the families of inmates, this gathering gives CURE members and the families of inmates an opportunity to thank their legislators for their past and present efforts to improve our state prison system and to encourage them to "stand tall" for inmate rehabilitation; and

WHEREAS, The goals of St. Dismas Day include making rehabilitation, not warehousing, the primary goal of the Texas Department of Corrections; promoting greater use of alternatives to incarceration such as probation, "shock probation," boot camps, and restitution centers, instead of constructing costly new prison beds to house thousands of additional people behind bars; and fostering a change in attitude among young Texans, so that they can avoid the pitfalls that have caught thousands before them—resulting in Texas taxpayers spending hundreds of millions of dollars each year on "room and board" in the Texas Department of Corrections instead of helping them to become productive citizens; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 71st Legislature, hereby commend and applaud all of those who are dedicated to the rehabilitation of our citizens who are incarcerated; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared as a token of admiration and as a memento of this special event from the Texas Senate.
